Dear Mr. Hustead:

Thank you for your letter of 16 September.

As far as I know, any of the dates which you mention when you might come to Washington appear satisfactory. However, I suggest that you call my secretary, [redacted] Extension [redacted] a few days in advance in order that a definite time may be arranged.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

September 16, 1960.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of September 2, 1960, I plan on leaving for New York City, November 26th, on a weeks business. I could fly into Washington, D. C. the 1st, 2nd or 3rd of December or the 5th of December. On the other hand, if any of these dates are inconvenient for you, I could come in earlier--the 28th, 29th or 30th of November.

In the event you do not wish to give me a definite appointment at this early date, I could call you from New York towards the end of November or first part of December. If this would be more to your liking, you need not write me unless you wish to give me a definite appointment at this time. If I do not hear from you, I will call.

Respectfully yours,

Bill Hustead.

MR. DULLES:

Col. King will be present for your meeting today at 12:00 when you see Mr. William Hustead, who was referred to you by Senator Karl Mundt.

Dear Mr. Hustead:

Thank you very much for your letter which you sent me via Senator Karl Mundt.

I deeply appreciate the patriotic motivation which prompted you to write to me as you did. I will be glad to see you in November or talk to you earlier if you wish. I might suggest that you telephone me [redacted] when your plans are made so that we may arrange a mutually convenient date when we could get together.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,
